

THE HARTFORD HERALD.

Subscription $1 Per Year, in Advance.

"I Come, the Herald of a Noisy World, the News of All Nations Lumbering at My Back."

All Kinds Job Printing Neatly Executed.

38th YEAR.

HARTFORD, KY., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1912.

NO. 8

PARTICULARS OF AN AWFUL CRIME

Came To Light Through Recent Grand Jury.

MANSLAUGHTER IS CHARGED

Against Prominent Physician, in Procuring the Death of Girl.

TWO MEN CHARGED IN AFFAIR

Details of a horrible affair have come to light the past few days as the result of two indictments returned by the grand jury of the Ohio Circuit Court, which closed its midwinter session here last Friday. The affair happened several months ago, but officials and outraged citizens have been working on the matter in the meantime and finally got it in shape to present to the grand jury.

On Wednesday afternoon the grand jury returned an indictment against Dr. Charles DeWeese, a prominent and well connected young physician of Horse Branch, this county, charging him with manslaughter by procuring the death of Florence Morris, a young girl about 16 years old. Martin Willoughby, of Central City, was also indicted with Dr. DeWeese on the charge of assisting in procuring the death of the girl.

Judge Birkhead fixed the bail of both DeWeese and Willoughby at $1,000 each, and bench warrants were issued yesterday for the arrest of the men.

It is stated on good authority that Willoughby has left Central City for parts unknown, he having heard that the grand jury was investigating the cause of the death of Miss Morris.

A most horrible crime has been committed, if the facts as related before the grand jury are true. Florence Morris formerly resided at Horse Branch. Her parents are dead and some months ago she went to Central City to make her home with the family of Martin Willoughby. A few months ago she was brought back to Horse Branch by Willoughby and taken to the home of Mrs. Bunk Smith, who lives out in the country from the town. The girl had been there about three weeks, when Dan Wilson, a well-to-do farmer, had occasion to go over to the Smith place to see a tenant named Davis. During the conversation, Davis told Wilson about the Morris girl being there and of her condition. While the two men were talking, only a few feet from the back door of the house, one came to the door and informed Davis that the girl was dying. Wilson and Davis then went into the house and in a few moments the girl was dead.

It was stated before the grand jury that Wilson found Dr. DeWeese in the room where the girl died, and that he said in the presence of Wilson, Davis and others in the room, that Miss Morris had died from some natural cause, possibly pneumonia.

It was then suggested by some one in the room that Miss Morris be buried at once. To this there was strong objection on the part of Wilson, who immediately informed the grandfather of the dead girl. This was the first time the grandfather or Wilson had known that the Morris girl was in that neighborhood. The grandfather got some neighbors and went to the Smith home, and after making an examination of the girl, sent for Dr. A. B. Riley, of Hartford, coroner, who held an inquest. The jury returned a verdict to the effect that the girl died from the effects of an operation which caused an abortion.

It is said that Dr. DeWeese, in making out the death certificate of the young girl, stated that she died from perforation of the bowels.

Mrs. Smith was a witness before the grand jury, but apparently knew very little about the affair. Since the grand jury adjourned it is said that Mrs. Smith will make a much better witness for the Commonwealth when the case against Dr.

DeWeese is called for trial than she did before the grand jury.

There is considerable feeling at Horse Branch over the matter.

VISIONS OF MARDI GRAS GOT HIM IN TROUBLE

Dawson Springs, Ky., Feb. 17.—Edwin Shoemaker, a Princeton lad of 17, was arrested here, charged with horse stealing.

Young Shoemaker, it is reported, the first of the week hired a horse from a Princeton livery stable, ostensibly to ride to Scottsburg, a small village between Princeton and Dawson Springs. Instead he came to this place and attempted to trade the stolen horse to Dee Fentress, a livery stable proprietor.

Shoemaker, it is said, claimed that the horse was his father's and that he had been authorized to trade him. Suspecting that the horse had been stolen, Mr. Fentress informed Marshal Albus Hamby, who after receiving a telephone message from the owners of the horse, arrested the young man.

He is said to have made several attempts to sell the horse to people whom he met on the road. Chief of Police Hopper, of Princeton, drove down Tuesday and took the young fellow into custody.

Young Shoemaker, it was learned, wanted the money to attend Mardi Gras at New Orleans.

IMPRESSIVE EXERCISES AT BURIAL OF MAINE

Bones of Sailors to Rest at Arlington—Cuba Will Honor Dead.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Impressive funeral services for the bodies of sailors recovered from the wreck of the battleship Maine, and for the remains of the battleship itself, have been arranged by the United States and Cuba.

Shortly after March 4, it is expected, the twisted mass which had lain fourteen years in the Havana harbor mud, will be towed out into the Gulf of Mexico and sunk. The armored cruiser North Carolina and the scout cruiser Birmingham, with the covered skeletons aboard, will convoy the Maine to its final resting place.

As the two cruisers take the wreck out into the gulf, the batteries of the North Carolina will roar out a salute of twenty-one guns. The shore batteries of Cuba will answer as the procession steams out to sea.

When deep water is reached, crews will be called to quarters, a funeral march will be played, three volleys will be fired, and, as all that is left of the old Maine disappears, a bugler will sound taps.

The North Carolina and the Birmingham, with colors at half-mast, will steam away for Hampton Roads. There the remains of the sailors will be transferred from the North Carolina to the Birmingham, which will bring them to Washington for burial in Arlington National Cemetery, with military honors.

President Gomez has issued a decree calling for elaborate ceremonies in Havana, as the ships leave the harbor. Flags on the Cuban military posts and public buildings will fly at half-mast.

When the bodies are taken to the North Carolina in the morning, the shore batteries will begin an all-day firing of cannon, which will continue every thirty minutes until sunset.

A guard of honor of Cuban soldiers and sailors will watch over the remains while the ceremonies on shore are in progress.

CHAMP CLARK LEADING IN STATE OF OKLAHOMA

Oklahoma City, Okla., Feb. 17.—Returns from fifty of the seventy-six Democratic county conventions held to-day show 189 of the 356 delegates instructed for Champ Clark, and 136 instructed for Woodrow Wilson. Oklahoma county's thirty-one delegates are uninstructed.

Administrator's Sale.

On Saturday, March 9, 1912, about one o'clock p.m., I will offer for sale by public auction, at the residence of the late Jacob C. Warren, near Centertown, one lot of corn—supposed to be 175 to 200 bushels.

Terms made known on day of sale.

St3 L. R. GOODALL, Admr.

INCOME RETURNS OF CORPORATIONS

Must Be Filed With Collector By March 1.

THE LAW IN REGARD THERETO

Reports Due from 39 Counties and 1400 Corporations in District.

IS A MATTER OF IMPORTANCE

Collector of Internal Revenue, Lawson Reno, at Owensboro, has received a communication from Washington, signed by Royal E. Cabeil, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, calling his attention to the provisions of the section relative to the annual returns of corporations, joint stock companies, associations and insurance companies. Returns of net annual income for 1911 are required to be made to collectors of internal revenue on or before March 14, 1912. Primarily, every corporation is subject to this requirement, except such as fall specifically within the classes enumerated by the statute as exempt.

Corporations whose net income does not exceed $5,000, as well as those whose net income exceeds that amount, are required to make this return, says the Commissioner. Heavy penalties are attached to failure to file returns within the specified time. Specific penalty of from $1,000 to $10,000 may be assessed. Failure to file the return in case a tax is due, subjects the company also to an assessment of 50 per cent. additional to the tax, according to the Commissioner's ruling.

There are 39 counties in this district, and there are about 1,400 corporations which have to report. "Corporations which have not received the blank forms," says the letter, "should write immediately to the Collector for them and fill out and verify and file the same without delay. The Government is under no obligation to furnish blanks, however, but does so only as a matter of courtesy and convenience. Failure to receive blanks will not be regarded as ground for relief from the penalties incurred.

"Each new corporation which was organized during the year should inform the Collector of that fact, giving its exact corporate name, address and nature of its business, so that it may be placed upon the list and be furnished the necessary blanks.

"Nearly all cases of delinquency occurring last year were the result of ignorance, inadvertence or neglect," the letter concludes. "It is hoped that future delinquency may be avoided and in order to effect this result, this circular is issued and collectors are instructed, through the press, or otherwise, to give as wide publicity as practicable to the instructions herein contained."

CONFEDERATE MONUMENT BEING ARRANGED FOR

The Princeton Leader says: The Tom Johnson Chapter of U. D. C. met at the hospitable home of Mrs. Fred Taylor Saturday, February 3. Regardless of the inclement weather, there was a full attendance and much interest manifested by every one present. The business routine was carried out, but the one feature that eclipsed all others on that occasion was a lively discussion on the placing of an order for the Confederate monument which has been so much talked of and to which many of Princeton's people have long looked forward. The discussion resulted in virtually placing the order—only a few preliminaries to be looked after and the deal is closed.

It was a proud moment for the Daughters, as it is a goal for which they have striven ever since the organization of the Chapter. However, it is to be regretted that there are not sufficient funds at hand to pay for the monument and the Daughters would greatly appreciate donations from any who feel disposed to help the cause.

Business conditions are said to warrant the hope for a year of wider activity than 1911.

STATE MEETING OF THE FARMERS

To Be Held at Frankfort February 27-29.

ALL INTERESTED ARE INVITED

Especially the Women, to Attend These Very Interesting Meetings.

"LADIES' DAY" IS FEBRUARY 28

To the Farmers of Kentucky:— You are hereby notified that the State Farmers' Institute, as provided for by law, is called to assemble at Frankfort, February 27, 28 and 29.

All delegates will be duly notified through this office, but this notice is given to the public to say that all farmers, irrespective of whether delegates or not, are cordially invited and will be accorded the privileges of the floor and are in fact urged to be present at this meeting, as it is understood by your Commissioner, the law does not contemplate that just one person from each county should attend this meeting, but that all persons interested in the development of the agricultural resources of the State who desire to attend, should be given the opportunity and the invitation to come to this meeting.

Women are especially invited and February 28th will be in great measure "Ladies' Day." Some of the best lecturers on "Household Economics," "Home Improvement" and "Women's Place in Agriculture" have been secured and particular attention will be given to interesting the women of Kentucky in the improvement of home conditions, especially in the rural districts.

Low railroad rates are expected. A good program has been provided for this Institute. The General Assembly is in session. The State Capitol is always interesting and it is hoped that this meeting will be the largest gathering of farmers ever held in the borders of the State.

Any information desired further will be cheerfully given by addressing,

J. W. NEWMAN,
Commissioner of Agriculture,
Frankfort, Ky.

SMLLHOUS.

Feb. 19.—Mr. John Withrow is quite ill of congestion.

Mr. S. E. Hunter has tonsilitis.

Mr. S. T. Hunter and wife have moved to Hartford.

Miss Nettie Geiger, of Center-town, was the guest of Misses Ethel Hunter, Oma Maddox and Mr. S. T. Hunter and wife the latter part of last week. She returned home Thursday.

Mr. James S. Trunnell, Utica, has been visiting here the past few days.

Mrs. Sallie Drake visited Mrs. Will Nichols, South Carrollton, recently.

Miss Ellen Lawrence, Dupont, is visiting relatives here.

Miss Flora Buskill, Moorman, has been visiting Miss Nancy Adington and other friends here for some days.

Mr. Shutt, of Cleaton, and Mr. Sam Faught, of Bevier, were in this community Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. C. O. Hunter, Hartford, who has been here winding up his father's business, has returned home.

Mr. Dan Hill, Central City, was the guest of his brother, Mr. J. C. Hill, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Overholt are the proud parents of a boy, who arrived February 4th.

Mrs. Jack Reid is on the sick list.

Mrs. Allen Buskill and children,

Moorman, are visiting here.

BARRETT'S FERRY.

Feb. 19.—People in this vicinity are busy peeling corn stalks for the cellulose factory at Owensboro. The local merchants act as agents for the factory and pay five cents a pound for the pith.

Farmers have begun to burn tobacco beds preparatory for a large crop of the weed.

Mr. T. V. Bratcher stuck a thorn in one of his knees some weeks ago and about a week ago inflammation set in his leg and he has been confined to his room ever since. Hope is entertained that he will recover without the loss of the limb.

Mr. Alva Blacklock bought a good young mule of Mr. Cody Wooley last week. Consideration $125.

Mr. James Thomas bought a nice young mule of Mr. Thomas Boswell for $140.

Mr. L. Barrett is having his new barn rebuilt which was blown down during the cyclone November 11, 1911. Mr. James Stinson is the contractor.

Mr. Sam Mitchell, of Owensboro, visited his father, Mr. Joseph Mitchell, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Clarence Smith, who has been in St. Louis for some time, returned home last Saturday.

Benefit.

For the New Methodist Church Fund at Dr. Bean's Opera House Friday evening, February 23, 7:30 the ladies of Section 1 will give a musical entertainment including children's songs with action, young ladies choruses, instrumental music and Charity Higgins Unique Invention, "The Vocal Organ" will be given. Also cantatas entitled "Ye Old Folks Concert."

Has a Good "Cabbage" Head.

Mr. Bryan is now marketing the cabbage crop on his Texas farm at the rate of $400 an acre. And not even a pert paragrapher has risen to remark that the greatest of all Americans has a cabbage head on him.—[Glasgow Times.]

GREAT STRIKE SEEKS CERTAIN TO COME OFF

All England Is Preparing For the Walkout of 800,000 Miners March 1.

London, Feb. 17.—The acuteness of the crisis in the British coal trade is emphasized by the prohibitive rate of 94½ per cent, asked by Lloyds in insurance against a national strike.

Both sides in the contest are making every preparation for war. The colliery owners are insuring not only the collieries, but their private residences as well against damage. The military authorities also have been making inquiries in the coal mining districts as to the facilities for billeting soldiers in the residences, inns and hotels.

No fewer than 800,000 miners already have handed in their notices to quit work thirteen days from today. On March 1, unless one side or the other unexpectedly yields, the country will face a national stoppage which will paralyze every industry and send up the cost of necessities of life to famine prices.

The authorities estimate that only a two weeks' supply of coal is in stock, although of course the railroads, gas companies and other concerns with storage facilities are better supplied.

The Federation of National Transport Workers has pledged itself not to handle "blackleg" coal, so that imported coal will only be handled with great difficulty.

The Government announces that it will take the crisis in hand early next week, although there is as yet no indication of how it proposes to attempt to break the deadlock.

Preparing For Strike.

Pittsburgh, Feb. 17.—Railroads in the Pittsburgh district are preparing for a coal strike, and large quantities of coal are being stored.

At the Kermis yards of the Pittsburgh, Bessemer and Lake Erie railroad, near Greenville, Pa., a large force is employed day and night with portable steam derricks unloading entire trains. Coal companies in the district are working Homemade Sausage, Pork Chops the coal being stored.

Wright—Bean.

Miss Gertrude Wright and Mr. W. J. Bean surprised their friends Wednesday when they were married at 1 o'clock that afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Duke, where Miss Wright was boarding. The ceremony was pronounced by Elder W. B. Wright, of the Christian church. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Bean left for New Orleans to attend the Mardi Gras, after which they will spend a few days in Louisville, and Anderson, Ind., before returning to Hartford.

For several years the bride has held the position of milliner for Barnard & Co. and has a host of friends here. Mr. Bean is connected with Bean Bros. Planing Mill and is a most estimable gentleman.

&lt;

GLITTERING GEMS WORN ON SHOES

By a Woman Who "Has Passion" for Such.

PUTS SHOES IN BANK VAULT

When She Isn't Wearing 'Em
—Has Plenty of Gowns
For a Change.

FABULOUS OUTLAY FOR STYLE

Washington, Feb. 16.—With six pairs of shoes studded with diamonds, one pair set with turquoise, bronze shoes covered with beads of gold and two massive gold anklets scintillating with gems, Mrs. C. H. Anthony, of Muncie, Ind., who for two weeks has astonished Washington with her jewels, will visit New York next week and carry her conquest to Fifth avenue.

Mrs. Anthony is probably the only woman in the world who keeps her shoes in a bank vault.

For her New York visit she has prepared 25 evening gowns, rich with rare laces and studded with gems. She will not appear on the street twice in the same gown, for she owns 30 tailored suits of expensive cloths. Forty gowns for mornings and afternoons are in her trunks, each one carefully wrapped in tissue paper.

Mrs. Anthony has a hat to match each gown, including one hat of black velvet and gold lace that has a thousand-dollar bird of paradise on it. Other hats are made of gold thread and Duchess lace and are decorated with rare plumage.

Ermine, lynx, white fox and sable furs match the gowns and hats. But above all stand Mrs. Anthony's shoes. One pair is of cloth of gold, with big diamonds imbedded in the heels; another pair of Duchess lace, even to the heels, upon which diamonds sparkle like drops of dew. Slippers of silver and gold brocade, of blue and pink, their heels all set with diamonds, are an array fit for any Cinderella.

One especially handsome pair of street boots in bronze is covered with gold beads, while its neighbors of white doe skin have jeweled buttons. To-day Mrs. Anthony wore red buckskin shoes with sardonyx buttons.

Every finger on Mrs. Anthony's two hands is full to overflowing with diamonds, sapphires, emerald and ruby rings, and her arms, almost to her elbows, are covered with massive begemmed golden bangles.

It is stated, and Mrs. Anthony refuses to deny, that she wears golden garters in the form of snakes with diamond eyes.

Mrs. Anthony startled the other guests at President Taft's reception to members of Congress last Tuesday night by wearing shoes with diamond-studded heels. Her head-dress on that occasion was made of white alabaster that cost a small fortune, fastened with a wide band of pearls, from which the tasseled ends hung down to her shoulders.

"Do not think I am vain or silly because I love beautiful clothes," said Mrs. Anthony to-day. "They are a passion with me. It is my greatest delight to plan a new gown or search for a becoming hat."

GREATEST OFFER YET.

The Chicago Examiner, the great Democratic Daily, and The Hartford Herald will both be sent to any address one year for only $3. This offer is good only during the months of January and February, 1912. The Examiner is a great home paper, as well as political advocate. Besides all the news, it has a powerful editorial page, engaging the efforts of the best writers. Don't delay—subscribe now. It's a great bargain. Send your name and $3 to The Hartford Herald.

45

JIM JEFFRIES THINKS HE CAN "COME BACK"

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 16.—Jim Jeffries is going to challenge Jack Johnson again.

This is the positive statement made this morning by a man close to the former world's champion fighter.

It appears that the big fellow has been contemplating this action for some time now, having conceived the idea soon after the Reno encounter that had he trained differently he would have been able to defeat the negro.

It is claimed for him that he has led an abstemious and careful life for some time now, and is said to be in the finest of physical condition. Indeed, he is open in his statements that he believes that at the present time he is in better shape, all things considered, than is the present champion.

There are hints that Jeffries has consulted at least three of the leading trainers of the country at different times in the last three months for private and confidential opinion of his condition, and that each, after a thorough examination, pronounced him in fit shape to begin a long siege of training work.

It is said that a definite announcement of Jeffries' plans will be made later.

• • • • •
ABRAHAM LINCOLN.
• • • • •

One hundred and three years ago Monday, Feb. 12, in a primitive little log cabin on the outskirts of the wilderness of Kentucky, a scrawny, homely baby was born upon whom the gods smiled. To the ambitious, the industrious and the enterprising of future ages, the career of that lowly babe of the forest clearing, from woodsman to President, is an admonition that poverty and obscurity are no handicap to the conquest of life's big prizes. Instead of being an obstacle to his development, poverty was to Lincoln an incentive which time quickened as he began to realize that responsibility unerringly gravitates to the man best able to assume it.

In this, Lincoln's rise from the humble lot of a rail-splitter to that of one of the stirring characters in history, is emphasized anew the fact, now everywhere recognized, that no hovel, however lowly, is any more safe from the visitation of talent than it is from lightning.

Lord Nelson, England's greatest sea fighter, was once a waiter; Cromwell, relentless foe of royal tyrants, a farmer; Patrick Henry, orator and patriot, a bartender; Herschel, one of the world's greatest scientists, a fiddler; the immortal Dickens, a chore boy in a shoe-blacking factory, and Verdi, composer extraordinary, a grocer's errand boy. Only the man who has come up from the bottom understands the feelings of those below and possesses those keen sympathies which make him the natural and commanding leader. Lincoln knew the masses as no other President ever knew them, and his single desire was to serve them usefully.

Modern politicians, covetous for power, can profit by his modest protest on departing for Washington to assume the Presidency, that he was already sick of office-holding.

"Keep the old sign on the door," he said to William Herndon, his law partner for 16 years, as he left his dingy little office at Springfield for the last time. "If I live (the general impression was that he would be assassinated) I'm coming back some time, and then we'll go right on practicing law as if nothing had ever happened."

In republic governed with the consent of the governed, could there be anything more intensely human than this frank confession that, after all, his heart was with the people at home, who knew that he was not the monster his enemies had pictured him? The bullet of the assassin, J. Wilkes Booth, put an end to all that was mortal of Lincoln, but his spirit still goes marching on, an inspiration and a benediction to the depressed and hopeless of all nations. It is one of the compensations of the truly great that the good in them is remembered and that what seemed a calamity to those who did not understand them, is often in reality a boon. The South thought the freeing of the slaves spelled its industrial and economic ruin, yet it produces to-day cotton of an annual value of $1,000,000,000 where it raised but $200,000,000 worth of that staple before the war.

Hold-ups and money snatching games have become almost epidemic in New York in the past few weeks. Preceding to-day's taxicab affair by scarcely an hour, two young men armed with revolvers attempted to rob the jewelry establishment of Barrett Nemets in Broom street. The jeweler showed fight, grappled with the intruders, and when they fled, fired several shots at them, which were returned.

One of the men escaped, the other was captured. He gave the name of Max Silver, seventeen years old. A revolver with five exploded cartridges in the cylinder was found in his pocket.

Earlier in the day burglars almost wrecked a private bank in Elizabeth street, on the East Side, in attempting to open the safe. They secured no booty.

If you have dizzy spells, attacks of momentary blindness, with ringing noises in the ears, it is an unfailing sign of a torpid liver; a condition which brings on some serious sickness—if neglected. HERBINE is a powerful liver tonic. It puts strength and activity into the liver, purifies the bowels and restores a feeling of health, vigor and cheerfulness. Price 50c. Sold by Hartford Drug Co., Hartford, Ky., Donovan & Co., Beaver Dam, Ky.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

You Risk No Money if You Try

This Medicine.

We want every one troubled with indigestion and dyspepsia to come to our store and obtain a box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. They contain Bismuth-Subnitrate and Peppermint combined so as to develop their greatest power to overcome digestive disturbance.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are very pleasant to take. They tend to at once soothe the irritable, weak stomach, to strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, to relieve nausea and indigestion, thus promoting nutrition and bringing about a feeling of comfort.

If you give Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets a reasonable trial, we will return your money if you are not satisfied with the result. Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies only at our store—The Rexall Store—James H. Williams, 214 Main street, Hartford, Ky.

BOLD ROB-B-RY IN GOTHAM CENTER

Daring Bandits Get $25,-
000 in Currency

AND ESCAPE WITH THE MONEY

Bank Messengers in Charge of the Cash Were Badly Injured.

NEW YORK HOLD-UPS EPIDEMIC

New York, Feb. 16.—Twenty-five thousand dollars in currency was stolen from a taxicab in the heart of the financial district this morning by two progressive highwaymen, who sprang into the vehicle and overpowered W. F. Smith and Frank Wardell, messengers of the East River National Bank at 680 Broad-

Both messengers were badly injured and the robbers escaped with the money—$15,000 in five-dollar bills and $10,000 in one-hundred-dollar bills. The currency was being transported from the Produce Exchange Bank in the lower part of the city.

The taxicab had proceeded up Broadway without mishap when for some unexplained reason the chauffeur turned west on Rector street into Church street, skirting the side and rear of Trinity church yard.

About midway of the old cemetery three men sprang from the curb. One jumped on the chauffeur's seat, the other two got into the vehicle. The man on the seat pressed a revolver in his overcoat pocket against the side of the chauffeur, Gino Martini, and commanded him to drive swiftly on without making an outcry.

Inside the vehicle the two robbers were laboring the bank messengers over the head. Smith, one of the messengers, is sixty-one years old, and he was bleeding and almost unconscious when the taxicab reached Park Place, a few blocks north. Wardell was badly beaten about the head, but not seriously hurt.

Now, what I'm driving at is this.

After he has fully saturated that gulping class with the spirit of Lincoln's letters, to get him to relieve the tedium with an occasional apropos reference to some interesting incidents in the tempestuous life of Gen. Jackson. There are some, I fancy, that would fit in nicely with Lincoln's letters to McNaught. For instance, take the Biddle case, which would be sure to stir up some fond reminiscences, at least in the memory of the Proff. of the chair of "applied decent politics."

Mr. Biddle, representing a group of powerful capitalists whose baleful influence upon political affairs was then similar to that of Wall Street now, went to the President and delivered the following ultimatum, red hot from the griddle:

"Gen. Jackson, we have the power to make and unmake Presidents, Governors and Congressmen. We have the power to make prosperity or bring ruin to the people."

"If that be true," said Old Hickory, fire flashing from his steel-gray eyes, "then you have a d—n sight more power than ought to belong to any set of men in a free country, and I shall appeal to the people to strip you of that power."

Of course it would never occur to that guileless and trusting class, who are so charmed with his strident and noisy parade of morals, albeit they smack so strongly of self-laudation, to ask their spotless preceptor what he did, when Wall Street, in consummating that crowning menace to commercial independence and freedom, the gigantic steel Trust, went to him in 1907 and, with the air of a dictator, said exactly what Biddle said to Jackson in 1832. Surely they'd not "stob" the Proff. with a brutal epigram like that, Uncle Reub says "companions are too odious," and present company should always be excepted," and "it's cowardly to strike a man when he's down." Besides, the disgusted woodcocks and hoot-owls are busy rending the welkins from Devil's Lake to Nigger Bend. So, "on with the dance"—but it's a pity the Proff. hasn't many, many more than six disciples.

SUGGS.

Rockport, Ky., Feb. 15, 1912.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

ARE NOW TWENTY-NINE
DEMOCRATIC GOVERNORS

With the admission of Arizona, the Union will be composed of 48 States. There are now 27 Democratic Governors, and as both Arizona and New Mexico have elected Democratic Executives, the number will be increased to 29. Among the Republican Governors only 14 are classed as "Regulars," four of the others calling themselves "Progressives," and two frankly admitting that they are "Insurgents." The Governor of Tennessee can be classed with neither party, as he was elected by a fusion of Democrats and Republicans, though he himself is a Republican.

What a change has been wrought in a few years! Not long ago the old-time Republicans held most of the country. To-day the Democrats and Progressives have ousted them from all but 14 States—less than a third of the 48. And the big campaign is only beginning.—[Baltimore Sun.]

MEAN UNCLE REUB.

• • • • •

LABOR LEADERS ARE ARRESTED

Charged With Big Dynamite Conspiracy.

A WHOLESALE GATHERING IN

Of Many Men Prominent In Labor Circles—Charges
Are Named.

HEARING SET FOR MARCH 12

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 14.—Over forty, of the fifty-four, labor union officials, including nearly the entire staff of the Structural Iron Workers, were arrested to-night in the dynamiting conspiracy. Officials declare the remainder will be arrested within forty-eight hours. The aggregate bond is $340,000. The International Union says it cannot furnish bond for all. Two are in jail here.

President Ryan issued a statement asking the union men to believe in their innocence.

All of the defendants are named in each of the thirty-two indictments, containing a hundred and twenty-eight counts, for a conspiracy to carry explosives on passenger trains. The penalty for each offense varies from eighteen months to two years. Sixty-five explosions are mentioned in the indictment on the work of the National Erectors' Association members, and thirty-one on other contractors.

The District Attorney intimated that when the hearings are held on March 12, facts may develop that will implicate others.

Hiram Cline, organizer, Spurgeon Meadows, agent of the Carpenters' and Joiners', and Clarence E. Darrow, machinists, are the only members of unions other than the Iron Workers' arrested.

Spurgeon P. Meadows, business agent of the district council of the International Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, was also arrested in Indianapolis. He represents one of the three labor unions alleged to be implicated in the conspiracy. The official of the other union represented is C. E. Dowd, of the Machinists' union, under arrest at Rochester, N. Y.

Frank C. Webb, a former member of the Iron Workers' Executive Board, who was arrested in New York, figures prominently in Orie McManigal's confession. Webb is charged with meeting McManigal and showing him where to do "jobs" in Hoboken and Jersey City, N. J.

Among the early arrests reported were those of Richard H. Houlihan, of Chicago, who is charged with furthering the violation of the federal statutes in connection with the explosions at South Chicago, and by assisting Orie McManigal, the confessed dynamiter.

E. E. Phillips, a former official of the Iron Workers' Union, was arrested at Syracuse, N. Y., and Edward Clark and Ernest G. W. Basey, also iron workers, were arrested in Cincinnati.

John T. Butler, of Buffalo, N. Y., first vice president of the International Iron Workers, and Herbert S. Hockin, of Detroit, second vice president and acting secretary-treasurer, and Fred Sherman, local business agent, were arrested here after Ryan was taken. Hockin succeeded J. J. McNamara, now in San Quentin prison in California, as secretary-treasurer.

Ortie McManigal, in his confession to the Government, charged that Hockin was the "man who put him in the dynamiting business." It is charged in the indictment that Hockin went to Detroit in June, 1907, and induced McManigal to take up dynamiting.

Ryan and his associates immediately conferred with District Attorney Miller in reference to bond. It is said that the bonds required for all fifty or more defendants will aggregate $300,000. The bonds are for their arraignment here on March 12.

The charges in the indictment are divided into two groups. The first group charges violation of the federal statutes regulating the interstate shipment of explosives, aiding and abetting to violate the law, and aiding and abetting to conceal the violation. The defendants in this case are termed accessories before and after the fact.

The second group charges conspiracy to violate the law by furthering the plans for carrying the explosives.

While the possible penalties for violations range from less than eighteen months to two years' imprisonment, it is said the punishments may be cumulative, so that one defendant charged with more than one offense may face a punishment equal to the accumulated penaltys for all his offenses.

The Iron Workers' Union, whose headquarters are in Indianapolis, has about 13,000 members, with 107 local unions, in the United States and Canada. Soon after it became known his officials were to be indicted, Mr. Ryan asked the members of the union to establish a fund of $7,000 a month. It is believed this fund now will be utilized for defense at the trials.

ONLY MARKET IN WORLD
FOR CORN STALK PITH

The Fordsville Argonaut says:

But few folks know that the only market in the world where you can sell corn stalk pith is here at Fordsville. R. W. Hines, of this place, has the contract to purchase 150,000 pounds of pith for the factory at Owensboro, where it is ground up fine, chemically treated and then pressed into blocks only six inches square. These blocks are then shipped to the Government at different points in the United States to be used in the building of warships.

Last year Mr. Hines purchased 100,000 pounds of pith. This is a great thing for the farmers, as they can gather stalks during the day and at night and during bad weather they can peel corn pith, and make good money which otherwise would be lost. Mr. Hines commenced to receive the first of February and has already received several wagon loads. It is put up in large sacks which hold about 1

48TH STATE IS ADDED TO UNION

President Taft Signs the Proclamation

ADMITTING ARIZONA TO FULL

Membership in Sisterhood of States — Rather Modest Ceremonies.

THE GOVERNOR INAUGURATED

Washington, Feb. 14.—As the White House clocks were striking 10, President Taft to-day signed the proclamation admitting Arizona to the Union. He used a gold pen which is to be given to Postmaster General Hitchcock.

"There you are," said the President, as he signed the last document.

In signing the proclamation admitting Arizona to the Union, President Taft added the forty-eighth star to the flag and brought within the sisterhood of States the last bit of territory within the confines of continental United States.

To perpetuate the scene for future Arizonans, the moving picture man invaded the White House for the first time. The President's office was filled with officers of the new State, Government officials and others interested.

All told there were three moving picture operators in the President's office and a half dozen photgraphers lined up with them on either side of his desk. As he signed the proclamation and its duplicate and the other necessary papers, the click of shutters and the whirr of the picture machines marked time with the scratching of the pen. The crowd in the office was unusually large, even for such an event, and included a score or more Arizonans who had traveled all the way to Washington to witness the ceremony.

After the signing it was announced that President Taft would send the nomination of Richard E. Sloan, former Governor of Arizona, to the United States District Judge for the new State, to the Senate this afternoon.

Governor Inaugurated.

Phoenix, Ariz., Feb. 14.—With Western simplicity, known elsewhere in matters official as "Jeffersonian," George W. P. Hunt was inaugurated as the first State Governor of Arizona to-day. A few hours earlier in the day word had come by telegraph from Washington that President Taft had signed the proclamation admitting Arizona to the Union, the last of the Territorial.

FREE IF IT FAILS.

Your Money Back If You Are
Not Satisfied With the Medicine We Recommend.

We are so positive that our remedy will permanently relieve constipation, no matter how chronic it may be, that we offer to furnish the medicine at our expense should it fail to produce satisfactory results.

It is worse than useless to attempt to cure constipation with cathartic drugs. Laxatives or cathartics do much harm. They cause a reaction, irritate and weaken the bowels and tend to make constipation more chronic. Besides, their use becomes a habit that is dangerous.

Constipation is caused by a weakness of the nerves and muscles of the large intestine or descending colon. To expect permanent relief you must therefore tone up and strengthen these organs and restore them to healthful activity.

We want you to try Rexall Quickerly on our recommendation. They are exceedingly pleasant to take, being eaten like candy, and are ideal for children, delicate persons, and old folks, as well as for the robust. They act directly on the nerves and muscles of the bowels. They apparently have a neutral action on other associate organs or glands. They do not purge, cause excessive looseness, nor create any inconvenience whatever. They may be taken at any time, day or night. They will positively relieve chronic or habitual constipation, if not of surgical variety, and the myriads of associate or dependent chronic ailments, if taken with regularity for a reasonable length of time. 12 tablets, 10 cents; 36 tablets, 25 cents; 80 tablets, 50 cents. Sold in Hartford only at our store—The Rexall Store—James H. Williams, 214 Main street, Hartford, Ky.

les on contiguous soil and the forty-eighth State.

In the ceremonies attendant upon the birth of the State and the induction into office of its first Executive, the military was conspicuous by its absence, the new Governor being averse to ostentation. There was but a meager display even of silk hats and frock coats, which invaded Arizona only a few years ago.

Accompanied by a number of the newly-elected State officers and a few close friends, Gov. Hunt, who began life in Arizona a quarter of a century ago as a waiter in a small mining camp restaurant at Globe, walked to the Capitol building, which stands about a mile from the center of the city.

The other State officers, who with the Governor immediately assumed their new duties, are:

Secretary of State, Sidney P. Osborn; State Treasurer, D. F. Johnson; State Auditor, J. C. Callaghan; Attorney General, George Purdy Ballard; Superintendent of Public Instruction, C. O. Case; Supreme Court Judges, Alfred Franklin, D. C. Cunningham, Henry D. Ross; Corporation Commissioners, F. A. Jones, A. W. Cole and W. P. Geary.

DEATH OF J. W. DORSEY— WAS PROMINENT CITIZEN

The Owensboro Messenger of Thursday says:

J. W. Dorsey, for a number of years a correspondent for the Owensboro Messenger, and one of the most prominent merchants of Beech Grove, died very suddenly at one o'clock this morning of heart failure. Mr. Rorsey, before retiring for the night, seemed to be in the best of spirits, and had just completed a letter to the Messenger. About one o'clock his wife heard a noise in his room, and upon investigation found that he was dead. He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Miss Geneva Dorsey and Miss Martha Dorsey. He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. C. O. Brown, of Owensboro, who is dangerously ill of typhoid fever, and another sister, Mrs. Van Horn, who is now doing missionary work in Japan, and by a brother-in-law who lives in Shelbyville.

Mr. Dorsey was an active church member, having been a member of the Baptist church at Beech Grove for a number of years. He was a prominent Democrat and was always known to be a man of strict business principles.

How Cold Affects the Kidneys.

Avoid taking cold if your kidneys are sensitive. Cold congests the kidneys, throws too much work upon them, and weakens their action. Serious kidney trouble and even Bright's disease may result. Strengthen your kidneys, get rid of the pain and soreness, build them up by the timely use of Foley Kidney Pills. They will cure any case of kidney or bladder trouble not beyond the reach of medicine. No medicine can do more. For sale by all dealers.

MARRIED FOUR TIMES— DIVORCED THREE TIMES

Ft. Worth, Tex., Feb. 16.—Lillian Russell's matrimonial record is at last beaten. Three times married and divorced, Mrs. A. M. Lewis, aged 16 years and 7 months, to-day took out a leap-year license and married for the fourth time.

Husband No. 4 had been Husband No. 2. The girl, originally Minnie Dooley was first married just before she had reached 15 to George Anderson. This was in 1910. She lived happily for three months and then there was a divorce.

Later in the same year she married D. H. Glass, from whom she shortly secured another divorce. Then A. M. Lewis, a railroad clerk, became Number 3 on the list. A third divorce followed and now she married Glass over again. The girl to-day said she believed the fourth knot tied would be the last.

First La Grippe, Then Bronchitis.

Such was the case with Mrs. W. S. Bailey, McCleary, Ky. "My wife was taken down with a severe attack of la grippe, which ran into bronchitis. She coughed as though she had consumption and could not sleep at night. The doctor's medicine gave her no relief and I was advised to try Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. The first bottle gave her so much relief that she continued using it and three bottles effected a permanent cure." Mr. W. S. Bailey says he is prepared to answer all inquiries promptly. For sale by all dealers.

For Sale, Cheap.

A full Bookkeeping Course scholarship in the well known Bryant & Stratton Business College, Louisville, Ky. For further particulars call on or address, The Hartford Herald.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

PROBING INTO SUN'S FURNACE

Scientists Have Reached Pit and Analyzed

THE AMOUNT OF SALT THEREIN

A Little History of the Fiery Orb Which Lights the Earth by Day.

GOLD IS NOT FOUND IN SUN

Scientific men at last reached the furnace pit of the earth's sun and analyzed the amount of salt therein!

Such are the wonders of the spectroscope. This wonderful instrument delves into the innermost secrets of matter and divulges nature's schemes with most marvelous accuracy.

About half the elements are well known and about half are hardly known at all. We have all heard of aluminium, antimony, arsenic, bismuth, calcium, carbon, chlorine, cobalt, copper, gold, hydrogen, iodine, iron, lead, lithium, magnesium, mercury, nickel, nitrogen, oxygen, phosphorus, platinum, potassium, radium, silicon, silver, sodium, sulphur, tin and zinc. But how many people have heard of columbium or niobium, erbium, gadolinium, indium, lanthanum, neodymium, phrseodymium, rhodium, samarium, terbium, thulium, ytterbium, yttrium, zirconium or europium? Some of these rare elements have been detected in a most wonderful and interesting way by spectrum analytic. It is well known that the white light of the sun is really a mixture of colored waves of light, and that the colored waves can be separated from each other by passing the white light through a prism.

All solid bodies, as platinum plate, a steel poker, if heated to what is called white heat, give off similar composite white light than can be analyzed into component colored waves. But it has been found that when any substance is reduced to a state of vapor and rendered incandescent, it no longer gives off white light, but certain characteristic colored rays which can be analyzed by a prism and so distinguished from all other substances. In a rough way the colored rays can be discerned by the eye, and the colored lights of pyrotechnic displays are rough illustrations of this principle.

The scientific instrument for the analysis of the light of incandescent vapors by means of a prism is known as a "spectroscopic," and the actual analysis is known as spectrum analysis.

By means of vaporizing substances and analyzing their light, the most minute traces of elements may be detected. For instance, one part of a grain of sodium, one six-one hundred and eighty millionth part of a grain of lithium, one millionth part of a grain of strontium and calcium can be detected.

In view of the wonderful delicacy of this mode of analysis it is not strange that it led to the discovery of some of the rarer elements. The importance of the spectroscope, therefore, in the identification and discovery of elements is undeniable and a remarkable fact may be mentioned. However distant incandescent light may be, it can be analyzed by the spectroscope which produced it.

We can identify not only the salt burning in a kitchen fire, but the salt burning in the furnace of the sun. A substance burning in the sun 93,000,000 miles away may be detected with as much certainty as if it were in the laboratory, and in this way we have found out the constitution of suns and auroras and nebulae.

In our own sun we have discovered about half the elements known on earth, including iron, carbon, calcium, aluminium, sodium, potassium, magnesium, silicon, hydrogen, zinc, copper, silver, tin and lead. Gold is not found in the sun, but some of the rare metals are plentiful, and helium was found in the sun before it was found in the earth. In nebulae an element, nebulium, has been detected, which has not been found in the earth.—[Chicago Tribune.]

For Sale, Cheap.

A full Bookkeeping Course scholarship in the well known Bryant & Stratton Business College, Louisville, Ky. For further particulars call on or address, The Hartford Herald.

Grammatical.

An Alabama negro, who had spent several years as a servant in a New York family, returning to his home, attempted to instruct members of his family in correct usage, especially in their language. One day at the table his brother said to him: "Gimme some 'lasses, Sam." "You mustn't say 'lasses," corrected Sam. "You must say molasses." "What is you talkin' bout?" grunted his brother. "How's I gwine to say mo' 'lasses when I ain't had none yet?"—[McCall's Magazine.]

DYING HICKORY TREES— THE CAUSE AND REMEDY

On account of the value of the hickory for shade, nuts, and many commercial wood products, Circular 144 of the Bureau of Entomology, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., by A. D. Hopkins, is of special interest to the people of any community, county or State within the natural range of this valuable tree.

It appears that although there have been several and sometimes complicated causes for the death, within the last ten years, of a large percentage of the hickory trees, investigations have proved that the hickory barkbeetle is by far the most destructive insect enemy, and is, therefore, in the majority of cases, the cause of the present extensive dying of the trees.

The simple and practical methods recommended in this circular will, if put into practice between October 1 and May 1, enable those interested to protect their trees.

The Sound Sleep of Good Health is not for those suffering from kidney ailments and irregularities. The prompt use of Foley Kidney Pills will dispel backache and rheumatism, heal and strengthen sore, weak and ailing kidneys, restore normal action, and with it health and strength. Mrs. M. F. Spalding, Sterling, Ill., says: "I suffered great pain in my back and kidneys, could not sleep at night and could not raise my hands over my head. But two bottles of Foley Kidney Pills cured me. Foley Kidney Pills have my heartiest endorsement." For sale by all dealers.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

MARY Surratt Was NOT GUILTY OF CRIME

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 12.—Almost fifty years after the assassination of Lincoln, the pen of Ben Pittman, pioneer stenographer and official reporter of the trial of the conspirators, reveals facts supporting the opinion that Mary Surratt, hanged with three others, was innocent of the crime. It was written just before Pittman died a year ago. It appears in the March issue of the Cincinnati Magazine.

STOMACH TROUBLES

Cured By Vinol—Here is Proof

Seymour, Ind.—"I was troubled with a chronic stomach trouble, and five weeks ago it got so bad I had to give up work. I had tried various medicines without relief, and was finally induced to try Vinol. After taking the first bottle I was greatly benefited. Am now on the third bottle and ready to resume work. Am rapidly gaining in weight and strength." Edw. Nielson.

It is the curative medicinal element of the cod's livers, combined with the strengthening properties of tonic iron contained in Vinol which makes it so successful in restoring perfect digestion and at the same time it builds up the tired, over-worked and run-down system.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

Z. W. Mitchell, Beaver Dam, Ky., Hartford Drug Co., Hartford, Ky.

MONEY IN TRAPPING FURS
We tell you how, and pay best market prices. We are dealers established in 1856; and can do BETTER for you than any of our competitors—merchants. References any bank in Louisville. Write for weekly price list.
M. SABEL & SONS
227-29-31 & 33 Embark St., LOUISVILLE, KY.
Dealers in FURS, HIDES, WOOL.

THERE IS NO CASE OF INDIGESTION, CONSTIPATION, RHEUMATISM,

BLOOD OR SKIN DISEASE

arising from a disordered stomach, bowels, liver or kidneys which will not materially benefit, or permanently cure; this has been proven for the past 42 years. Ask your parents, or neighbors, about "SEVEN BARKS", as thousands have testified to its merits. Don't delay to get a 50 cent bottle at your druggist, and start yourself on the road to complete recovery.

"SEVEN BARKS"

LYMAN BROWN, 68 Murray St., New York, N.Y.

Are You Nervous?

What makes you nervous? It is the weakness of your womanly constitution, which cannot stand the strain of the hard work you do. As a result, you break down, and ruin your entire nervous system. Don't keep this up! Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from purely vegetable ingredients. It acts gently on the womanly organs, and helps them to do their proper work. It relieves pain and restores health, in a natural manner, by going to the source of the trouble and building up the bodily strength.

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Grace Fortner, of Man, W. Va., took Cardui. This is what she says about it: "I was so weak and nervous, I could not bear to have anyone near me. I had fainting spells, and I lost flesh every day. The first dose of Cardui helped me. Now, I am entirely cured of the fainting spells, and I cannot say enough for Cardui, for I know it saved my life." It is the best tonic for women.

Do you suffer from any of the pains peculiar to women? Take Cardui. It will help you. Ask your druggist.

Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent free. J. K.

YOU WANT a Better JOB?

That question will be asked you almost daily by business men seeking your services, if you qualify—take the Draughon Training—and show ambition to rise.

More BANKERS endorse DRAUGHON'S Colleges than endorse all other business colleges COMBINED. 48 Colleges in 18 States. International reputation.

BANKING. Typewriting, Penmanship, English, Spelling, Arithmetic, Letter Writing, Business Law—FREE auxiliary branches. Good POSITIONS GUARANTEED under reasonable conditions.

BOOKKEEPING. Bookkeepers all over the United States say that Draughon's New System of Bookkeeping saves them from 25 to 50 per cent in work and worry.

SHORTHAND. Practically all U. S. official court reporters write the System of Shorthand Draughon Colleges teach.

CATALOGUE. For prices on lessons BY MAIL, write JNO. F. DRAUGHON, President, Nashville, Tenn. For free catalogue on course AT COLLEGE, write

DRAUGHON'S PRACTICAL BUSINESS COLLEGE

Nashville or Memphis or Knoxville, Tenn., or Paducah, Ky., or Evansville, Ind.

PROFESSIONAL CHAMBERS

BARNES & SMITH Attorneys At Law

HARTFORD, - KENTUCKY.

Moses W. H. Barnes and C. E. Smith announce that they have formed a partnership for the general practice of law, except criminal and divorce cases. Mr. Smith being County Attorney, is prevented from practicing such cases. Mr. Barnes will immediately accept such practice. Office in Hartford Republican building, Hartford, Ky.

This Beautiful Home in Beaver Dam, Ky., FOR SALE!

This picture, which was taken from an actual photograph, shows one of the most modern and strictly up-to-date homes in the town of Beaver Dam, Ky. It is new from the ground up, having been built about three years ago. This residence contains seven rooms, storage room, reception hall, elegant bath room, large closets, pantry, etc. Cabinet mantles and tile hearths throughout. Elegantly papered with the highest grade papers, with picture and plate rails to match. The ventilation is perfect, having a large transom over every door in the entire building. The location is one of the most prominent in the town, being right on Main street, within one square of the business center and two squares of the schools. Extra fine water from drilled well, cased with steel casing, and large 4x6-foot concrete base. Large two-room laundry building, three-room coal and kindling building, good two-room chicken house with a special scratching yard. Concrete and brick walks in yard and shade trees all started with three years growth. All openings have the patent lock screens. Splendid neighbors, all of whom own their own property. Will show you through this property any day up to April first, and after that date call on Saturdays or Sundays only. This home was built during the panic of 1908 and would cost one-third more to build it to-day. My reason for selling simply from the fact that all my interests and business is now elsewhere and I am compelled to go to it in the near future. Call on or address me at Beaver Dam, Ky.

HARRY MONROE.

The Hartford Herald

HEBER MATTHEWS, FRANK L. FELIX,
EDITORS
FRANK L. FELIX, Pub. and Prop'r.

Entered at the Hartford post-office
as mail matter of the second class.

THE BIBLE AND LIQUOR ---PAPER SELF-CONVICTED

In a recent issue of The Herald appeared the following little editorial squib:

"Is the little journal published at Louisville called Our Country really a liquor organ, as has been alleged and surmised, or—is it?"

To this Our Country makes a rather voluminous reply, covering about half of its editorial page. It does not attempt to really deny the soft impeachment, but rather offers various reasons to support its stand in the matter. After stating that "Our Country is strictly a farm paper, devoted to the interests of the farmers of Kentucky and other States," it says:

As it happens, the editor of this paper made a very careful study of the liquor problem, extending over a period of years, and we feel it our duty to protest against prohibition. We believe that prohibition is wrong, because its object is to prevent the use of alcoholic beverages, and we believe that the teaching that prohibition is in accord with the Bible, is wholly wrong and misleading. So far as The Herald's question is concerned, it seems to be answered right there. A journal that openly and frequently "protests against prohibition," would seem to need no other distinction or tag to align it with the liquor interests. Continuing, the editor of Our Country says:

We have read the Bible from cover to cover and have found that the Bible is in favor of temperance and that it pronounces woe upon the drunkard, but nowhere have we found anything that can be construed as in favor of the non-use of alcoholic beverages, except upon special and well-defined occasions which have no application to the average citizen.

The legalized traffic of liquor was not known when any part of the Bible was written, but the whole trend of its teachings is against the use of intoxicants. We defy the editor of Our Country to quote us one single passage of Scripture that favors the legalizing of saloons or the general use of liquor as an intoxicant, and that is all it is used for nowadays—the effect. There is not one man in 1,000 who drinks liquor at all who does not at times become drunk. In fact, that is the main element of liquor—the intoxicating effect. If it did not cause intoxication in a greater or less degree, nobody would care for it, or acquire the habit of drinking it. Over and over again does the Bible warn against the use of liquor, including that famous passage, the first verse of the 20th chapter of Proverbs: "Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging, and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise." The editor of Our Country seems to have overlooked this familiar quotation when he read his Bible "from cover to cover," for he says, after doing so, "nowhere have we found anything that can be construed as in favor of the non-use of alcoholic beverages," and the above quotation does not apply to any "special and well-defined occasions," but is general. Plainly speaking it's PROHIBITION.

Equally strong in denunciation of drinking is the 11th verse of the 5th chapter of Isaiah: "Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine inflame them!" Did our brother editor miss that passage also? Nothing said there about "temperance" or "intemperance." In both these passages the warning is to LET IT ALONE.

The Bible is full of such warnings. In fact, NOWHERE in the Good Book is the general use of liquor advocated. Throughout the whole Book, from lid to lid, is recounted the misfortunes and downfall of those who would tamper with strong drink. Evidently the editor of Our Country would put liquor indiscriminately, into the hands of everybody—including the bloom of our rising young manhood—with the only warning that they must be "temperate" in its use, scorning to consider the frailty and weakness of the human body as a whole, and refusing to reckon with the penitentiaries, asylums and almshouses of our country which are overcrowded with inmates who no doubt tried to be temperate," but whose downfall is due solely to the damning use of strong drink. It is the maker of widows and orphans, and who, unless aligned with the liquor forces, can defend it in any way?

Inasmuch as the editor of Our Country has taken the Bible as his authority in his evident stand for the liquor interests, saying he has read it "from cover to cover," we wish to refresh his memory with a few passages, none of which are in favor of "temperance," as he calls it, but all bearing their lesson of woe and ruin to those who meddle with strong drink. For instance, let him read:

Eph. 5:18; Luke 21:34; Gal. 5:21; Isaiah 28:8 and 5:11-12; Hosea 4:11 and 7:5; Prov. 21:17, 23:21-29-30; Romans 13:13; Daniel 5:1-4; Isaiah 56:12; 1st Cor. 5:11 and 6:10; Hab. 2:15; Deut. 21:20-21; Joel 1:5-6; Amos 6:6-7; Mat. 24:49-51. Exemplifications may be found in Gen. 9:21; 1st Samuel 25:36; 2d Samuel 11:13; 1st Kings 20:16; 1st Cor. 11:21.

These are just a few usually familiar passages. Throughout the Good Book the warning is written in letters of fire, BEWARE! The main question at issue in this controversy is, how can the editor of Our Country, who says his journal is "strictly a farm paper and devoted to the interests of the farmers," afford to champion a cause which is more blighting in its effects upon all people (including farmers) than anything that affects their interests? Is he really working in the interest of the farmers in his stand for the open saloon or the abolishment of prohibition? What do the readers of Our Country, presumably scattered throughout the ninety-odd prohibition counties of the State, think of its attitude, anyhow? Posing as a strictly farm journal, can Our Country afford to mix liquor with the agricultural interests?

Suppose prohibition doesn't actually and all the time prohibit the sale and use of liquor in communities where it is the law, isn't the principle good? Do the laws against murder, theft and arson actually prevent these crimes from occurring? Must we go without provisions of law because people continue to violate them?

Concluding its long defense of the liquor interests, Our Country says:

If our brother of the Hartford Herald is in favor of real prohibition, that is, of the prohibition of the use of liquor in "dry" territory, now is the time for him to speak up or forever hold his peace.

We are certainly in favor of a prohibition law for "dry" territory as well as "wet" territory, as we can see no difference in the principle of the theory, applied to either place. Whether prohibition actually and everywhere prohibits or not, it speaks for a moral principle and a righteous cause, the same as other restrictive laws.

In the meantime we are glad we smoked Our Country out into a frank acknowledgment, as its editorial implies, that it IS a liquor organ, even if it does fly the colors of a strictly agricultural and farming sheet.

The drift of Republican sentiment is apparent. It is a foregone conclusion that Taft and Roosevelt will be candidates for the Republican nomination for President. The rank and file of the party are for Roosevelt, but the office-holders are for Taft, who will in all likelihood be their nominee. This will be like waving a red flag in a bull's face to the "progressive" element, but whichever of the two is nominated, there will be a large element of his party against him. All of which augurs that our next President will be a Democrat.

Having been born on February 16, 1840, Editor Henry Watterson was 72 years old last Friday. The press of the whole country, including their millions of constituents, join in wishing the veteran, able and beloved editor many happy returns of the day. There be those of us who differ from him at times in expressed opinions, but none who are not willing to accord him the greatest measure of love, respect and veneration.

Mr. Watterson refers to Gov. Wilson, of New Jersey, as "an intellectual crook." This reminds us of what Mr. Watterson said in 1896 of a certain popular man who was just attaining prominence, as follows:

Mr. William J. Bryan has come to Kentucky, and Kentuckians have taken his measure. He is a boy orator. He is a dishonest dodger. He is a daring adventurer. He is not the material of which the people of the United States have ever made a President. Nor is he even of the material of which any party has ever before made a candidate.

And yet Mr. Watterson lived to see the day that he supported Mr. Bryan for President. Let us hope that the Wilson case will be another of the same kind.

Successful Moonshine Raid.
Richmond, Ky., Feb. 17.—Capt. W. T. Short and Deputy United States Marshal William Mays returned from Clay county to-day, where they made another big moonshine raid. This was their third big haul in that county in the past three weeks.

They destroyed two big stills, containing several gallons of beer, captured two "shiners," Hense Maupin and James Banks, and secured several warrants for others.

For Sale, Farms—All sizes, from 6 to 300 acres. We can please you if you want to buy land.

A. C. YEISER & CO.
Hartford, Ky.

Stimulant
or Tonic?
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a stimulant. It does not make you feel better one day, then as bad as ever the next. There is not a drop of alcohol in it. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a tonic. You have the steady, even gain that comes from such a medicine. Ask your doctor all about this. Trust him fully, and always do as he says. He knows.

Who makes the best liver pills? The J. C. Ayer Company, of Lowell, Mass. They have been making Ayer's Pills for over sixty years. If you have the slightest doubt about using these pills, ask your doctor. Ask him first, that's best.

Made by the J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

HEAVY DAMAGES FOR RAILROAD ACCIDENT

Verdict for $16,000 by Jury—
Suit Involves New Questions of Law.

Paducah, Ky., Feb. 17.—A verdict for the heaviest damages awarded a plaintiff in McCracken Circuit Court in a decade, was returned yesterday afternoon by a jury. In their judgment the plaintiff in the action of John Doherty, administrator of the estate of his brother, Joseph Doherty, vs. the Illinois Central Railroad Company, is entitled to $16,000. Attorneys Wheeler and Hughes, local counsel for the Illinois Central, will take the case to the Court of Appeals. It may finally land in the Supreme Court of the United States, according to local attorneys.

July 25, 1910, Joseph Doherty, a car repairer employed by the railroad company at Central City, under instructions from a foreman, is said to have gone under a passenger car for the purpose of repairing a defective brake. The foreman is said to have assured him every protection and told him there was no danger. Shortly after he had begun work switch engine backed into the cars, and one of the wheels cut off Doherty's head. July 1, 1910, Congress enacted a law known as the Employers' Liability act. This law went into effect only a few days before the accident occurred. Attorneys Tom Crice, John H. Hendrick and Frank N. Burns filed a petition in Circuit Court praying for $25,000 damages under the new law. Later the petition was dismissed on motion of the plaintiff and an amended one filed. Attorneys for the railroad took the petition before Judge Walter Evans and asked it to be included on his dockets. After the plaintiff had closed, Attorney Charles W. Wheeler, for the defense, announced that there would be no defense. The jury were given instructions and after arguments retired to their room. In less than half an hour they returned the verdict for $16,000.

The railroad company hopes to have the judgment annulled on a technicality of the federal law, but attorneys for Doherty are determined to fight the case through any and all courts.

STOCK PEAS.
Nice Whippoorwill Seed Peas for sale in Hartford by BLACK & BIRKHEAD.

Birthday Party at Matanzas.
Mr. and Mrs. Jake Igleheart entertained with a surprise birthday party at their country home near Matanzas on last Thursday evening in honor of their son Byron's eighteenth birthday. Numerous games were indulged in and music for the occasion was rendered on the organ.

A pleasant evening was spent by all. Those present were: Misses Edna and Louise Coffman, Gail Condit, Naomi Bell, Lydia Igleheart, Gay Ashby, Gertrude and Ruth Kirtley, Bertha Swanson, Mary Ellen Jackson, Bertha Mabrey; Messrs. Silas, Marvin and Ellis Bell, Otis Wallace, Frank Kirkpatrick, Alvie Brown, Frank Everly, Byron Igleheart, Roe Condit, Clyde Boyd, Will Riley, Tommie Coffman, Jim Igleheart, Stille Mason, Arlie and Jack Bishop, John Fulkerson, Guy Heflin, Hubert, Ike and Ulis Ashby, John Jackson, Barnard and Henry Withrow, George Igleheart, Arvil and Harlan Stearman, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Weaver Hocker, Mrs. Bettie Atherton, Mr. Leslie Tally, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Igleheart.

A company has been incorporated in Delaware to build a traction line from Hopkinsville to Guthrie.

FOLEY-KIDNEY PILLS
FOR NEUMATISM KIDNEYS AND BLADDER.

Talks to Business Men NUMBER 1.

It will soon be time for you to lay out your advertising campaign for next year. Your plans should by all means include a handsome art advertising calendar for 1913 to be sent out to your customers and friends at Christmas, 1912. In this connection, we wish to announce that we have recently secured the local agency for the copyrighted calendars produced by the A. M. Collins Mfg. Co., of Philadelphia. The samples for 1913 are in our hands now, and we shall be glad to show them to you at any time. Make no plans for your 1913 calendars until you see this extraordinary line.

The Hartford Herald.

Advance Sale OF SPRING GOODS

OUR purchases for spring are arriving every day and we are giving you the opportunity of selecting snappy, up-to-date merchandise from the season's offerings.

OUR NEW

Clothing, Spring Ginghams,
India Linens and Embroideries

Are now ready for your inspection.

The early buyers will get the pick of these purchases. The prices we are making on these goods ought to move them out quickly. Now is the time, while our stock is complete. Don't fail to make an early visit. You will not be disappointed.

Respectfully,

CARSON & CO.,
Incorporated.

Hartford, Kentucky.

To Our Farmer Friends and Patrons:

Now is the time to begin to anticipate your fence wants. We have just received two car loads of the celebrated American Steel Wire Fence. We bought it right, so we can give you a very low price on any specifications you may need. Call and see us about your fence.

Yours truly,

DUNDEE MERCANTILE CO., INCORPORATED
DUNDEE, KENTUCKY.

A Few More Left

During our late Kum Down Sale we had a phenomenal run on our Ladies' Coat Suit and Cloak department. Notwithstanding all this we have a few left that we propose to make a still deeper cut on, to dispose of them. LISTEN: Choice of our Ladies' Suits—some sold for $15, some for $20 and some for $25—for only

Ten Dollars

Why not take advantage of this ridiculously low price? It's money in your pocket.

OUR LOSS IS YOUR GAIN

Remember this and bear in mind that it pays to

Trade with a House that Saves you Money.

F. TAPPAN & CO.
THE FAIR DEALERS

Here's Big Ben!

The latest and most up-to-date ALARM CLOCK on the market. Will alarm steady or repeat. He is GUARANTEED for one year and I will repair him after the year is out at a small cost. That much is something new, as others do not furnish material to repair their clocks.

"Early to bed, early to rise
Makes a man healthy, wealthy and wise."

Big Ben is the Remedy.

Come in and see him, anyway.

On Sale at—

J. B. Tappan's
The Reliable Jeweler.

Send The Herald
the NEWS—we will appreciate it.

Will furnish you Field Seeds at reasonable prices.

W. E. ELLIS,
8t4 Produce Merchant.

Mr. Fred Cooper, our genial herryman, went to Central City yesterday on business and will return to-day.

Messrs. J. E. Funk, Hartford, R. 5; R. A. Rowan, Hartford, R. 7, were callers at the Herald office Thursday.

Leave your Laundry at my Grocery. Domestic finish. Work Guaranteed. Called for and prompt delivery. Phone 140. Ille's Grocery.

Make a 25-cent purchase at the Ohio County Drug Company and take a guess for a $35.00 Victor Talking Machine. 4t4

Mr. J. Lou Hill has gone to Madisonville to work in the restaurant of H. N. Tate, who recently moved from here there.

Mesdames Mont McKinney and Elmer McKinney, of McHenry, gave The Herald a pleasant call while in Hartford yesterday.

All kinds of Telephones and Switchboards repaired, and new parts furnished when needed, by A. E. Pate, Hartford, Ky. 5t4

Messrs. J. C. Bennett and W. M. Addington, Smallhous; Ora D. Nelson, Nelson, were among the Htrald's callers Wednesday.

All interested in the Farmers Mutual Telephone Co. are invited to meet in the office of School Superintendent Henry Leach to-night.

Mrs. Bettie Sanders, who had been the guest of her son, Mr. Herbert S. Sanders, and wife for a few days, has returned to her home in Louisville.

Mrs. Dorcas Gray and Miss Gertrude Stevens, the efficient operators at the local telephone exchange, honored The Herald with a call last Saturday.

Mr. Earl Miller and sister, Miss Maude Miller, who are attending Hartford College, visited their mother at Olaton, from Friday until Monday afternoon.

A complete system of bicycle ladders has been installed in the Ohio County Circuit Court Clerk's office which very much facilitates looking over the off-docket records.

Dr. S. J. Wedding, city; Everett Porter, Hartford, R. 4; Z. Wayne Ellis, West Hartford, and J. T. Wallace, Hartford, R. 2, gave the Herald a pleasant call Wednesday.

Just received a new barrel of N. O. Molasses and they are guaranteed to be as good if not better than any in town and the PRICE is only 65c per gallon.

Iller's Grocery & Meat Market.

If you are going to buy a Telephone, you can't do better when you buy the CRACRAFT-LEICH. They make telephones that talk and sure ring. Sold by A. E. Pate, Hartford, Ky.

5t4

Mrs. Dr. Z. H. Shultz, of Pleasant Ridge, and Mrs. Dr. J. O. McKinney and children, of Taylor Mines, visited the ladies' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Sanderfur, city, last week.

Fresh Beefsteak, Beef Roast, Pork Steak, Chops, Home-made Sausage (pure Pork), Pure Home-made Lard (fine), and Cured Meats of all kinds at W. H. Moore & Son's Meat Market. Phone 47. 5t4

Buy THE CRACRAFT-LEICH Telephone and you will escape the trouble and work cause by having a poor and defective telephone. They are guaranteed. Sold by A. E. Pate, Hartford, Ky. 5t4

W. H. Moore & Son will sell you Beef Roast at 10c per pound, Beef Steak at 12½c per pound, Fresh and Pork Steak at 12½c per pound, Pork Steak at 12½c per pound, Side Pork 10c per pound.

Hartford Local No. 604, A. S. of E. will meet at Hartford next Saturday, February 24, at which time the obligation and secret work will be given. A good attendance is earnestly requested.

T. H. BALMAIN, President.

Don't forget that W. H. Moore & Son will do all in their power to please you. If for any reason you are not satisfied with any purchase made of them, don't tell others but tell us and we will treat you right. 6t4

For Sale—Piano, Wardrobe, refrigerator, bedsteads, chairs, kitchen cabinets and various other household articles. See me Saturday, February 24, at my house—S. A. Anderson—or see Mrs. J. G. Keown.

Our efficient postmaster, Mr. M. L. Heavrin, accompanied by his wife, will leave for Louisville today where he goes to have a slight operation performed on his lower bowels, which have been giving him considerable trouble for some time. He will go direct to St. Mary's Hospital, where the operation will be performed. Mr. Heavrin's numerous friends wish him a speedy recovery and return home.

Capt. J. M. DeWeese, of Owensboro, was in Hartford Saturday and Sunday. Capt. DeWeese has resigned his place in the revenue service and will spend a few months in New Mexico for his health.

The many friends in this city of Mr. Joshua Fields will be pleased to learn that he has been given a promotion to the position of teller in a bank at Port Arthur, Texas, which carries with it a handsome salary. some salary.

Hear "Alexander's Ragtime Band," "You are the Ideal of My Dreams," "Bill," etc., on the Victor Talking Machine. You might own this machine by making a 25-cent purchase at the Ohio County Drug Co.'s store. 4t4

Lieut. C. B. Shown, of Company H, has received an official order from the Adjutant General stating that the annual inspection and drill will be held in Hartford on February 28 and 29. An army officer will be in attendance on these days to inspect the local company.

A birthday dinner was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Williams, of the Central Grove neighborhood, Friday, in honor of the sixth anniversary of their little daughter, Little B. The little one received many nice presents. There were about 35 people present and the day was much enjoyed.

Revival services will begin at the Court House next Monday night, February 26, conducted by Pastor T. V. Joiner, assisted by Rev. C. F. Wimberly, of Madisonville, Ky., who will do the preaching. W. B. Yates, of Marion, Ky., will lead the singing. The public is cordially invited.

The evidence and arguments of counsel in the case of the Com'th. vs. Leslie Rucker, of color, charged with detaining a woman against her will, was heard before Judge R. R. Wedding yesterday and taken under advisement. In the meantime Rucker was remanded to jail to await the decision of the examining court as to whether he should be held to answer to the next grand jury.

The games of basket-ball at the Hartford Athletic Hall last Saturday night between the boys and girls high school teams of Hartford College and Central City resulted in a victory for the Hartford folks in both games. At the close the score stood for the girls, 13 to 6; for the boys 26 to 11, both in favor of Hartford. After the games were over the local teams served light refreshments and a general social feast was enjoyed.

W. P. Thomas Wins.
In the suit of W. P. Thomas vs. B. H. Rummage, wherein both parties were claiming the marshal's place in the town of Beaver Dam and wherein the evidence and argument of counsel were heard at the recent term of Circuit Court and submitted to the Court for judgment, Judge Birkhead handed down his opinion Monday which holds that W. P. Thomas is the legally elected marshal for the town of Beaver Dam.

Dentist Crushed to Death.
Central City, Feb. 19.—Dr. D. F. Oman was killed at South Carrollton by being crushed by an air compressor used at the rock quarry at that place. Dr. Oman had charge of the work. He was a practicing dentist. He leaves a wife and three children.

S. T. MASON
At Beaver Dam, Ky.

IN ORDER TO GIVE THE PEOPLE OF OHIO COUNTY AN OPPORTUNITY TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE HIGH PRICES ON EVERY THING THEY EAT WHICH WILL PREVAIL ALL OVER THE ENTIRE COUNTRY THIS SPRING, OFFERS THE FOLLOWING BARGAINS FOR CASH ONLY. SALE BEGINS FEB. 26 AND ENDS MAR. 2, 1912.

18 lbs. Granulated Sugar... $1.00
20 lbs. Navy Beans..... 1.00
5 lbs. Roasted Coffee..... 1.00
7 lbs. Full Head Rice..... .50
Boxed Rolled Oats..... .25
3 pkgs. Seeded Raisins..... .25
3 cans Corn..... .25
6 cans Lye Hominy..... .40
3 pkgs. Currants..... .25
6 cans Pie Peaches..... .55
8 bars Swift's Pride Soap..... .25
7 bars Lenox Soap..... .25
6 bars of any soap you wish... .25
5 bags Duke's Mixture tobacco, 20.
Bacon, per pound..... .11
Country Hams, per pound... .14
Ask our prices on Lard.

Royal has no substitute for making delicious home-baked foods

ROYAL

Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

The only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

• • • • • MARRIAGE LICENSE. • • • • •

• • • • • HARTFORD COLLEGE NOTES. • • • • •

Elisha Brown, Owensboro, to Coralia Gardner, Beaver Dam.

Wesley Duke, Friedaland, to Nellie Hall, Oloton.

D. C. Oldham, Centertown, to Ura B. Faught, Smallhous.

F. D. Porter, Cromwell, to Audra Taylor, Cromwell.

O. S. Petty, Fordsville, to Hettie Thurman, Askins.

W. E. Martin, Cromwell, to Besie May Smith, Cromwell.

A. F. Roberts, Fordsville, to Maggie DeBruler, Shreve.

Cecil St. Clair, Rosine, to Floy Miller, Rosine.

James R. Thomas, White Run, to Alta Maiden, White Run.

Ernest Royal, Hartford, Route 6, to Effie Westerfield, Hartford, Route 6.

W. J. Bean, Hartford, to Gertrude L. Wright, Hartford.

Clark Wilson, Beaver Dam, to Lizzie D. Johnson, Cromwell.

Forest R. Casebeer, Prentiss, to Myrtle Cooper, Prentiss.

Bert H. Trail, McHenry, to Iona Ball, McHenry.

For Sale—Town property, vacant lots, cottages and two-story dwelling.

A. C. YEISER & CO.,
Hartford, Ky.

For classy job printing: The Herald

STOCK PEAS.

Nice Whippoorwill Seed Peas
for sale in Hartford by BLACK & BIRKHEAD.

For Sale—Town property, vacant lots, cottages and two-story dwelling.

A. C. YEISER & CO.,
Hartford, Ky.

For classy job printing: The Herald

TAILORED TO ORDER

This ultra fashionable Spring Model Man-Tailored to your order in all Wool Blue Serge, On sale this week, only ..... $14.50

Special Sale this Week Only

to acquaint you with our astonishing values in tailored-to-order clothes that are made in Chicago by America's leading custom tailors—the American Ladies' Tailoring Company.

No need to worry about the style, the fit, the fabric or the price of your new Spring Outfit—whether it's a tailored suit or a coat, a dress or a skirt, we have in this tremendous up-to-the-minute line just what you want. The prices range up to $50.00.

69 Spring Models—Over 250 Cloths

Just think what a variety of styles and fabrics, including silks, we offer you to select from—and how certain you are of being delighted.

All the exclusive style, all the certainty of fit offered by the best merchant tailors and at half their prices, too. An experienced fitter in our store takes your measure and the garment will be delivered promptly with

Satisfaction Guaranteed.

Please call and see these lines while they are fresh and sparkling with all the new things in ladies' dress.

Be sure to make an early visit to our store.

DEPARTMENT
BARNARD & CO.
HARTFORD, KY.

The Hartford Herald

Illinois Central Railroad—Time Table at Beaver Dam, Ky.
North Bound. South Bound.
No. 132—4:05 a.m. No. 121—11:35 p.m.
No. 122—12:28 p.m. No. 101—2:48 p.m.
No. 102—2:48 p.m. No. 131—8:55 p.m.
J. E. Williams, Agt.

"FATHER, DON'T KILL ME, I AM HOLDING A CROSS"

Child's Appeal Fails To Stay
Hand of Despondent Parent at Cleveland.

Cleveland, Feb. 16.—When Adam Bujoah called at the home of Peter Cieczuch late to-day to deliver milk, he peered through a window and saw two little bodies on a bed. He called the police, who found Cieczuch on the floor with his throat cut. On the bed, with necks almost severed, lay the bodies of Cieczuch's children, Czeflaw, 5, and Agnes, 3. Cieczuch died in an ambulance on the way to a hospital.

The mother was away from home at the time of the tragedy. It is said Cieczuch was despondent because he was out of work and for that reason killed his children and himself.

Horror-stricken and unable to find her voice to scream an alarm, Mrs. Joseph Kiscelski, it developed to-night, saw the father murder his children and then kill himself. She had gone to the house to see Mrs. Cieczuch. Hearing a child scream, she looked through the window and saw Cieczuch seated on the bed with the boy across his knee and razor in hand.

"Father, please don't kill me; I am holding a cross," she heard the child say, and then saw the razor almost sever his neck.

Then the father caught up the girl and slashed her throat.

Without pausing, he then drew the blade across his own throat.

Still speechless with fright and horror, the woman ran away, her courage to tell the story returning an hour later.

A WORD TO THE FARMERS
—BE GAME TO THE LAST

There are years when even farming, which is as dependable an occupation as we can find, does not give a fair return for labor. This past year, large sections have been stricken with drought. A man who has seen his full summer's toll spent for practically no returns, can not be blamed for discouragement. It takes "sand" to stick and energy to come back and try again. We farmers need to cultivate a little of that unconquerable spirit which was shown by a man who, last month, went on the operating table for a serious surgical operation. He did not rally from the anesthetic, and, after a consultation of wise physicians, they all pronounced him dead. His body was removed to the morgue and left there for the night. About 2 o'clock in the morning the attendant in the corridor looked through the glass doors and was astonished to see a movement of the white clothes that draped the dead man's form. Almost frightened to death, he called the doctors, firemen and police. They entered the death chamber as the lately deceased slowly arose and rubbed his eyes.

"Gimme my pants," said he, "I want to go to work."

That man came back. He was game. Even the doctors could not kill him. There is another year coming. One swallow doesn't make a summer and one drought need not spell disaster. Go to it, brave men; the earth is yours and the fullness thereof. —[Richmond Climax.]

You are probably aware that pneumonia always results from a cold, but you never heard of a cold resulting from pneumonia when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was used. Why take the risk when this remedy may be had for a trifle? For sale by all dealers. m

For Sale.
Sixty-five acres of well improved land in Rough river bottoms, 2½ miles west of Hartford. For further particulars, address X, care of The Herald. 21f

CONFEDERATE PENSION
BILL PASSED BY SENATE

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 16.—Without a dissenting vote the Senate yesterday afternoon passed the Glenn Confederate pension bill, which provides pensions of $10 per month to indigent veterans who wore the gray and their widows married prior to 1890. A State Pension Board, composed of the Governor, Auditor and Secretary of State, is named to put the act into effect.

It has been intimated that at least 1,000 Confederate veterans will avail themselves of the act, which will necessitate an expenditure of $120,000 annually.

JUDGE WAS BUSY, BUT—A SLIGHT INTERRUPTION

Midland, Tex., Feb. 16.—A dispute arose in Commissioner's Court to-day, during which Judge J. H. Knowles, presiding, made an assertion regarding the court's action at a previous session. Commissioner Julie Driver arose and exclaimed:

"You are a liar, Judge."

"This court will stand adjourned," Judge Knowles announced, "until I whip the man who just called me a liar."

Then Knowles gave Driver a severe drubbing. The hostilities over, he reconvened court and fined him $100 for fighting.

The interrupted court deliberations were then resumed.

DAILY NEWSPAPERS
ARE DIMINISHING

The statistics of the past year show that daily newspapers are diminishing in numbers. A year ago the number was 2,472; the newspaper annual for 1912 will show 13 less dailies and the trend now indicates a greater mortality of daily newspapers than births.

This decrease comes about by the fact that the field of daily newspapers has been completely filled and that it is impossible for them to succeed with the heavy expense that it takes to run them.

The census of 1911 shows 16,229 weeklies, 40 of which died during the year. The death rate of the semi-weekly is greater than any other paper, 605 of them having passed away into the great beyond during the year 1911.

Itching of the skin anywhere on the body stops instantly when rubbed with BALLARD'S SNOW LIMENT. One or two applications cures permanently. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Hartford Drug Co., Hartford, Ky., Donovan & Co., Beaver Dam, Ky. m

As to Lawyers.
Speaker Champ Clark tells of a Missouri lawyer named Strange who became ill and feared he was about to die.

Calling his wife to him, Lawyer Strange said:

"Now, my dear, when I die, I would like you to put a little headstone at my grave and on it simply say, 'Here lies an honest lawyer.'

The wife expressed surprise that her husband did not wish his name on the stone.

"That will not be necessary," he said. "Everyone who passes and sees the inscription will at once say, 'That's Strange.' —[McCall's Magazine.]

How to cure a cold is a question in which many are interested just now. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has won its great reputation and immense sale by its remarkable cures of colds. It can always be depended upon. For sale by all dealers. m

Oh, My Goodness!
At an entertainment given by a country church congregation, one of the deacons made the announcement.

He occasioned much surprise when he said:

"Miss Mary Simpkins will sing 'Put Me In My Little Bed,' accompanied by the minister." —[New York American.]

DANGER IN DELAY.*Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous for Hartford People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they may get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health is gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, gravel and Bright's disease are likely to follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Help the kidneys. Try the reliable and safe remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills, which has won a reputation right here in this locality.

Mrs. A. Baur, 737 Mulberry St., Owensboro, Ky., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and have found them to be unequalled for kidney trouble and lame back. This remedy corrected the difficulty with the kidney secretions and removed the depressing headaches. I sleep much better using Doan's Kidney Pills and that languid feeling has disappeared."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's

THIEF FOR FIFTY YEARS*SOUGHT HELPING HAND

"Veteran Convict" Blames His Plight on Lack of Christian Charity.

The Chicago Examiner of Thursday has the following:

"No thief, no matter how clever he is or thinks he is, should marry a good woman. I married a sweet little Chicago girl but she died of a broken heart after I had been sent to a penitentiary."

Then Knowles gave Driver a severe drubbing. The hostilities over, he reconvened court and fined him $100 for fighting.

The interrupted court deliberations were then resumed.

DAILY NEWSPAPERS
ARE DIMINISHING

The statistics of the past year show that daily newspapers are diminishing in numbers. A year ago the number was 2,472; the newspaper annual for 1912 will show 13 less dailies and the trend now indicates a greater mortality of daily newspapers than births.

This decrease comes about by the fact that the field of daily newspapers has been completely filled and that it is impossible for them to succeed with the heavy expense that it takes to run them.

The census of 1911 shows 16,229 weeklies, 40 of which died during the year. The death rate of the semi-weekly is greater than any other paper, 605 of them having passed away into the great beyond during the year 1911.

Itching of the skin anywhere on the body stops instantly when rubbed with BALLARD'S SNOW LIMENT. One or two applications cures permanently. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Hartford Drug Co., Hartford, Ky., Donovan & Co., Beaver Dam, Ky. m

As to Lawyers.
Speaker Champ Clark tells of a Missouri lawyer named Strange who became ill and feared he was about to die.

Calling his wife to him, Lawyer Strange said:

"Now, my dear, when I die, I would like you to put a little headstone at my grave and on it simply say, 'Here lies an honest lawyer.'

The wife expressed surprise that her husband did not wish his name on the stone.

"That will not be necessary," he said. "Everyone who passes and sees the inscription will at once say, 'That's Strange.' —[McCall's Magazine.]

How to cure a cold is a question in which many are interested just now. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has won its great reputation and immense sale by its remarkable cures of colds. It can always be depended upon. For sale by all dealers. m

Oh, My Goodness!
At an entertainment given by a country church congregation, one of the deacons made the announcement.

He occasioned much surprise when he said:

"Miss Mary Simpkins will sing 'Put Me In My Little Bed,' accompanied by the minister." —[New York American.]

DANGER IN DELAY.

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous for Hartford People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they may get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health is gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, gravel and Bright's disease are likely to follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Help the kidneys. Try the reliable and safe remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills, which has won a reputation right here in this locality.

Mrs. A. Baur, 737 Mulberry St., Owensboro, Ky., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and have found them to be unequalled for kidney trouble and lame back. This remedy corrected the difficulty with the kidney secretions and removed the depressing headaches. I sleep much better using Doan's Kidney Pills and that languid feeling has disappeared."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's

dous occupations are on the books in all the States. There are also laws forbidding trespassers upon railroad rights of way. People who walk upon railroad tracks simply tempt Providence. —[Leslie's Weekly.]

POEMS YOU'LL ENJOY.
The Herald's Special Selections.

MISS MULLER.

Maud Muller, when 'twas 8 below,
Stood on the sidewalk, shoveling snow.

The wind was sharp, the snow was deep,

The drifts were very wide and steep.

She shoveled off the wide front walk
And then she paused a while to talk;

"I've worked," she said, "two hours
and more

To clear this pathway to our door.

"I've shoveled off the side paths,
too;

My fingers and my wrists are blue.
I've shoveled off the garden path;
I fell down and arose in wrath.

"The snow has sifted in my shoes—
To-morrow I will have ah-choos.

My feet are damp and stiff and cold,

This shovel seems too much to hold.

"They say fresh air and exercise
Will make pink cheeks and lustrous eyes—

And I suppose good health arrives

From this, if one the task survives.

"Now I'll go in and shovel coal
Into the chilling furnace bowl,

And then I'll take the ashes out

And scatter them all roundabout.

"Oh, would I had remained a spinster, then this toiling had not been."

Into the house she turned to trudge,

For Maud, you see, had wed the Judge!

HOW TO BE A MIND READER
According to THE ONLY ZANCIGS. This remarkable book will enable you, though blindfolded, to name any article presented; give the full name and address on a card, etc., etc. Great for Church, Lodge and other Entertainment, or to earn money on the stage. Price $1. Address, L. G. FIXEN, 1313 Carmen Ave., Chicago, Ill. 7t4

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

For Sale,

An $80 Scholarship in the Vanderbilt Training School for Boys, Elkhorn, Ky. Will sell reasonable. For further particulars call on or address, tf.

The Hartford Herald.

When her child is in danger a woman will risk her life to protect it. No great act of heroism or risk of life is necessary to protect a child from croup. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and all danger is avoided. For sale by all dealers.

Poor Married Man.

"The time will come," thundered the suffragette orator, "when women will get a man's wages!"

"Yes," sadly muttered a man on the rear seat; "next Saturday night." —[Judge.]

There are 900,000 Londoners who are living two or more in a room, while there are 26,000 who are crowded six into a room.

Motherhood

is the highest type of womanhood.

Scott's Emulsion

is the highest type of curative food.

The nourishing and curative elements in Scott's Emulsion are so perfectly combined that all (babies, children and adults) are equally benefitted and built up.

Be sure to get SCOTT'S—it's the Standard and always the best.

ALL DRUGGISTS

11-17

BLOUNT'S "TRUE BLUE"*STEEL BEAM PLOWS

6 1/2 TO 16 INCHES

Acknowledged by all as the Plow of Quality.

LONGEST LIFE
FINEST MATERIAL
BEST WORKMANSHIP
PERFECT FINISH

SOLD BY

L

THE CHARGE OF THE BOY

CADETS.

Macon, Ga., Feb. 15.—(Special) Walter A. Clark, a prominent citizen of Augusta, who will be one of the welcome visitors to the Reunion at Macon, May 7-9, has published a poem in recognition of the gallantry of the Confederate troops at New Market, Virginia, in May, 1864. The poem is dedicated to the especial memory of Dr. John F. Bransford, who began his military career in the battle at New Market, and who afterwards distinguished himself by gallantry in battles of the Civil War.

The corps of which Dr. Bransford was a member were students at the Virginia Military Institute at Lexington. After a hard day of fighting, the corps returned to their camp near New Market and were greeted by the old veterans with the quaint old Southern song, "Rock-a-by-Baby." The poem follows:

On the college ground the boys had played
With their mimic drill and their dress parade,

But the time had come that wartime spring
To give them a taste of the real thing.

Far up the valley came Sigel's Corps

With his horse and foot and his guns galore,

And to stem the tide, there were barely then

Four thousand of Echo's and Wharton's men.

So the order came for the boy cadets

To fight by the side of the war-worn "vets."

And forth they marched at the battle cry,

Ready to dare and ready to die.

Their dress was new and their guns were bright,

And their step was true and trim and light,

And their girlish faces smooth and fair

As they marched to war with a jaunty air.

On the battle line they file in place With a faultless step and a boyish grace,

While across the plain the "blue" drums roll

And cannon are bristling from every knoll.

"Sling knapsacks!" falls from the leaders' lips,

And to fighting trim each fair boy strips,

While he nervously tightens his battle gear,

And the drawn lips whiten, but not with fear.

Then "Forward the line!" and the ranks are game,

Though the enemy's guns are belching flame,

And the missiles are playing hide and seek

As they rend the air with a fiendish shriek.

The ridge is passed; there's a flash and a roar,

And five of the boys are stretched in gore,

By a villainous rifle shell—and then

The orderly sings out: "Close up, men!"

And they close the ranks and press straight on.

With never a falter, never a groan, While the marching front as they near the "blue"

Seems straight as the line of a field review.

But he stands at bay on the plateau's crest,

But he stands at bay on the plateau's crest,

While his shot and shell sad breaches tore,

In the tender ranks of the boyish corps.

But on they go through the leaden hail,

And on, to the flash of the smoking pale;

And on to the flash of the smoking gun,

Though the lads are dropping one by one.

Their leader falls, but a stripling hand

A bright sword waves as he takes command

And leads them on through the crimson rain

To the goal, that thunders across the plain.

And now they're up with Wharton's men,

And the ranks are halted and form again;

And then with a rush and a yell they go,

And the day is won from the routed foe.

CHILDREN CRY
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

Hartford Herald, Only $1 Year

ANTI PARCELS-POSTS CONVENTION TO MEET

At Nashville, February 26-28—
Big Arrangements Are Being Made.

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 17.—(Special)—Plans are rapidly maturing for the holding of the Anti-Parcels-Posts Convention here February 26-28, which, judged by the number of acceptances received from merchants from all over this State, Kentucky, Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi and South Carolina, will be probably double that in attendance upon last year's like gathering here.

The local committee on convention arrangement has already provided for an attractive entertainment programme, including two complimentary theater parties to which all delegates will be invited; has secured low railroad rates from all parts of the South and will announce within a few days a splendid list of convention speakers. Already the services of S. Norvell, the magnetic and eloquent merchant editor and orator of St. Louis, have been secured as an oratorical entertainment card. Mr. Norvell has studied the parcels-posts question at length in Europe and will be in a position to throw valuable and interesting light upon the practicability of the measure as adapted to conditions in this country.

The chairman of the local convention committee states that out of thousands of letters received from merchants from all over the Southern section, with regard to attending the convention, but one response advocating a parcels-posts system in this country has been received. This, he declares, indicates a remarkable unanimity of sentiment among representative Southern merchants against a measure that would tend to favor a few big mail-order houses in large cities and work to the corresponding detriment of the rural merchants and the rural community, along with that of the jobbing and manufacturing interests.

For Sale.
A $20 scholarship in Bowling Green Business University, Bowling Green, Ky. For further particulars call on or address:
HARTFORD HERALD.

THE FIRST NEGRO JURY
IN HISTORY OF KANSAS

For the first time in the history of Reno county a case was tried in Hutchinson the other day before a jury composed exclusively of colored men. It was the hearing in Probate Court of the case of Mrs. Martha J. Marshall, a negro woman, who was being examined as to her sanity. Charles Fulton, Deputy Probate Judge, remarked that he never

CAUSE AND REMEDY.

Uncertainty of the immediate future is looked upon by many men of affairs, as a blockade to enterprise and business prosperity, and this blockade is now quite apparent throughout the channels of trade.

The Presidential Election; the efforts of Congress with no fixed purpose; Organized Labor as a new factor in politics; together with other matters of greater or less import, represent at this time a chaotic conflict of separate interests, to harmonize which is now the problem before the country.

All want Prosperity, Peace and Plenty. Read with care the Cincinnati Enquirer, a journal that prints all the news each day from every commercial center throughout the world. A barometer of causes and effects that points out, as a Beacon Light, the danger and the safeguard thereto.

As well known, the Daily Enquirer is the largest in size and highest priced paper in the United States, yet cheapest, measured by quality and quantity.

The Weekly Enquirer, with the cream and digest of all the news, able and conservative editorials, market reports, methods and results from Government and State Experiment Stations, veterinary matters, People's Forum, choice literature, short and continued stories, non-sectarian sermons, general information, etc., with the exclusion of all matters of scandal and immorality, is today the Cleanest Weekly Family Journal obtainable. Each issue is alone worth the price of a year's subscription.

Solicitors for subscriptions make a handsome profit and increase the good influence of The Enquirer in the uplift of morality and industry, and for the betterment and welfare of the community. For terms write to The Enquirer, Cincinnati, Ohio.

The Cincinnati Weekly Enquirer and The Hartford Herald Both One Year For Only $1.25.

saw a finer set of men on a jury than those six colored men, one of them a doctor, another a minister and a third a law student, and all of them men who have good education and character. It attracted a lot of attention, being a very unusual occurrence in Kansas legal circles.—[Kansas City Journal.]

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH.
W. B. Wright, Pastor.

Preaching every Fourth Sunday morning and evening.
Bible School every Sunday at 9:30 a.m.
Communion service at 10:30 a.m.
Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Only Way.
"Have you ever thought of any way to keep your boys on the farm?"

"Yes," replied Mr. Corntossel: "quit raisin' crops an' turn the place over to rabbits an' partridges."

The Cutlery Family.
"I call 'em the cutlery family."
"Why so?"

"Well, the daughter spoons, the father forks out the money and the mother knives the other guests."

The Only Chance.
"If those California women run for office, do you think they would be guilty of purchasing votes?"

"Not unless they got trading stamps with them."

Fault of Language.
Mrs. Meyer—Could you give me a little money, my dear?

Mr. Meyer—Certainly, my dear. About how little?—[Life.]

TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature
of

In Use
For Over
Thirty Years
CASTORIA

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY

KENTUCKY Light and Power Company

(INCORPORATED)

E. G. BARRASS, MGR.,
Hartford, Ky.

Will wire your house at cost. Electric Lights are clean, healthy and safe. No home or business house should be without them when within reach.

SEND YOUR BOY TO MATHENEY & BATT'S Vanderbilt Training School FOR BOYS Elkton, Kentucky.

A limited select school for boys. Faculty of college-trained men. Our patronage has come from several Southern States. Twenty-four different towns in Western Kentucky represented this year.

Electric Lights, Steam Heat, Hot and Cold Baths.

Extremely Healthful location. $4,000.00 recently spent on improvements.

No saloons in the town or county. Moral surroundings excellent. Unexcelled as a school for young boys.

Nineteenth Year Begins September 6, 1911.
Write for catalogue.

Address all communications to

Desk "C."
MATHENEY & BATT'S.

